

NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Postcard from Paris Wins ASID Design Specialty Award

(Greenville, SC: October 2, 2006) Postcard from Paris has received an ASID Carolinas Design Specialty Award for its work at The Cliffs at Mountain Park, a project led by Postcard from Paris designer Julie Perkins. The interior design firm designed and managed all specifications for a 3,000-square-foot home that was featured in The Cliffs Communities Signature Showcase of Homes earlier this year.

Postcard from Paris was one of 14 recognized across South Carolina and North Carolina during this year's awards presentation held in Greenville. The annual Design Specialty Awards recognize excellence in design and execution.

###

ABOUT POSTCARD FROM PARIS

Postcard from Paris is an 11,000-square-foot European interiors market and full-service interior design firm specializing in high-end European antiques and accessories, exquisite contemporary European furniture and accessory lines, lighting, custom linens and bedding, art, rugs, garden accessories, and more. Located in Greenville, South Carolina's historic West End, Postcard from Paris provides comprehensive design services, including home interior and exterior design specifications. More information can be found on Postcard from Paris' Web site at www.postcardfromparis.com or by calling 864-233-6622.

Contact:
Meredith Kinsey
864-419-6340
meredith@postcardfromparis.com